SUMMER READING GUIDE

Welcome!

I'm so glad you've downloaded this guide -- thank you.

I hope it's a fun accompaniment to your summer, whether you're staying at home in the AC (same) or traveling (stay safe!) or some mix of both. If our goal is to read one book this summer or 100, you're in good company here.

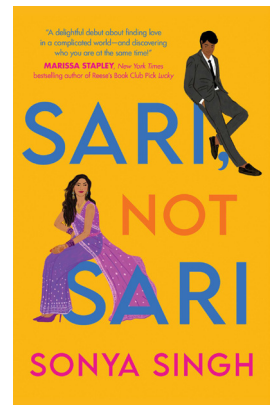

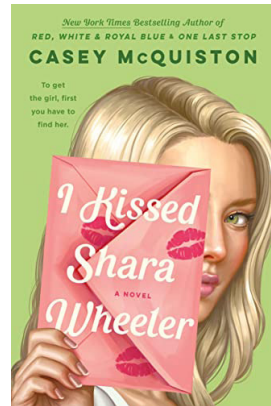

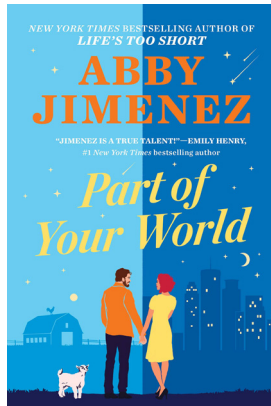

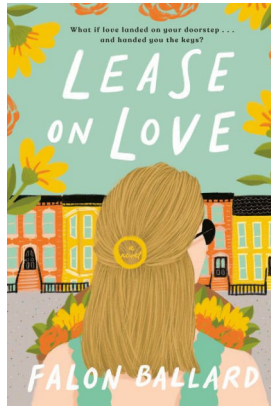

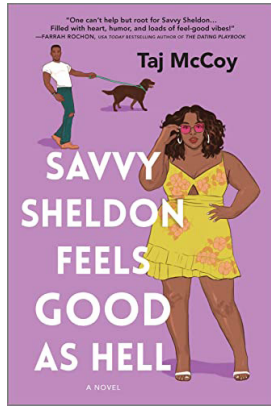

You'll find a mix of genres, a combo of new releases and backlist books, from a diverse span of authors that I hope you'll love getting to spend time with over the coming months.

These pages are designed to fit in an A5 journal, so feel free to print and paste in your bujo if that's your style, or just add books to your library list and shopping carts straight from the PDF. If you're feeling ambitious, the full list of all 48 picks is at the end.

Oh, and don't miss page 7 -- I launched a brand new book club, and I hope you'll join for some fun summer reading in our new rad reading community!

Stay cool + keep reading, friends.
xo, rad

JOIN THE NEW ALL THE RAD READS BOOK CLUB!

This summer, I'm so excited to launch a brand new book club community for rad readers near and far. Through the site/app Bookclubs, we will have a new members-only community for just $5/month. Each month, we will have a chosen book to read, and a virtual gathering at the end of the month where we chat about the book on Zoom with our own snacks and drinks (pants optional, of course). I hope you'll join us!
